CHESS RULES

The tournament will be conducted in Swiss-style in the initial rounds. This is NOT an elimination style tournament thus everyone will get a chance to play at least a couple of matches. In the initial rounds players will be picked and paired at random calls, so in case you unfortunately face the best player of the tournament in the first round and lose the first game, you still get a chance to recover in the subsequent rounds and reach the semis/final. Final rounds might be a combination of Swiss and/or knock-out. Tournament format and fixtures will be finalized after submission of all the possible number of participants.

All standard rules for the game apply.

A minimum of 4 players and a maximum of 5 players will be allowed to participate.

These are the highlights:

All players: Must be able to do the following:

- 1) Properly move all of the chess pieces.
- 2) Understand pawn promotion.
- 3) Understand rules for "advanced" moves: Castling and en passant capture (note: please ask the organizer in case of any confusion about en passant rule).
- 4) Understand Check and the ways to get out of check (move, block, capture).
